JOSEPH KATZ MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP (#1956)

AWARD CRITERIA: Scholarships totaling approximately 10,000 (an amount that is normally shared by multiple winners in a given year) have been endowed through a bequest by Mary Katz, and by family, friends and colleagues, in memory of Joseph Katz, a long-term member of the Faculty of Education. Scholarships are awarded to outstanding Magistral or Doctoral students studying in the area of multicultural and minority education. These awards are given in recognition of Magistral or Doctoral students who have demonstrated high academic achievement and who have made substantial contributions to the fields of anti-oppressive education and/or education for diversity. Substantial contributions will be considered in terms of both scholarly and service contributions to the field.

ELIGIBILITY: Applicants must be full-time graduate students enrolled in the Faculty of Education at UBC-V in Winter Terms 1 & 2 of the year of application. Applicants must not be expecting to graduate or finish their program in Winter Term 1 (fall) of the year of application. (Note: Students on a part-time fee payment schedule (Schedule B), as well as students who are on leave or on financial hold are not eligible to apply.)
